Let's get right down to cases—Watch cases

OPEN up an Ingersoll—you'll see a busy little time-keeping plant in operation, happily, smoothly, accurately functioning—every little movement with a meaning all its own.

Now look the Yankee in the face—it's an honest face and a truthful face. And you can believe what you see there.

After all, the primary purpose of a watch is to keep time. The Ingersoll keeps time and does it under conditions that would send any other watch to the repairer's.

And its sturdiness, dependability, and cheapness aren't obtained at the cost of appearance. The Yankee is really a good-looker.

MACSWINEY SEES 'IRELAND WINNING' "Hunger Strikers Privileged in Evoking Support of World," He Says.

LONDON, September 19 (By the Associated Press).—Terence MacSwiney, lord mayor of Cork, was very weak today, according to a bulletin issued by the Irish Self-Determination League.

The bulletin stated that Annie MacSwiney, sister of the lord mayor, had just left Brixton prison, where he today began the thirty-ninth day of his hunger strike and declared his condition was unchanged, except for the weakness incident to his long fast.

In his report to the home office the physician at Brixton prison reported that the lord mayor's condition was virtually unchanged.

Message to All Irishmen.

Lord Mayor MacSwiney last night wrote a message to Irishmen throughout the world on behalf of himself and the hunger strikers in Cork jail. After thanking them for their sympathy and prayers, the lord mayor said, according to the London Times: "If this cold-blooded murder is pushed through it will leave a stain on the name of England which has no parallel (even in her history), and which nothing will ever efface. It will rise before the English people whenever they offer another people friendship. We feel singularly privileged at being made instruments of God for evoking such world-wide expressions of admiration and support for the cause of Irish independence and recognition of the Irish republic. If we are to die, we are called to that even greater privilege and happiness of entering the company of those who died for Ireland."

Expression of Forgiveness.

"We forgive all those who are compassing our death. This battle is being fought with clean hearts, purely for our country. We have made our peace with God and bear it all will toward no man."

After invoking God's blessing upon all who prayed for the prisoners, MacSwiney concluded by saying: "I believe God is watching over our country, and by His Divine decree her resurrection is at hand. I believe this is her last battle for liberty and that God will crown it with complete victory."

Pointing out that Mr. MacSwiney and the Cork hunger strikers have virtually equalled Dr. Tanner's forty days fast, a newspaper asks how the first twelve men to be found—Mayor MacSwiney and the eleven in Cork—when they tried to go without food could equal Dr. Tanner's record, which excited the wonder of the world.

In reply to this O'Brien of the Irish Self-Determination League, said tonight: "No nourishment or food of any kind is being given to the lord mayor."

Hunger Striker an American.

CORK, September 19.—Rev. T. Carroll of Grenagh called at the Cork jail this evening and notified the governor of the jail that Joseph Kenny, one of the hunger strikers, is an American citizen. He said that Kenny, who was arrested on suspicion of being an Irish republican soldier, had lived for many years in Montana, and that he was the father of seven children. Father Carroll, who is a fellow-townman of Kenny, said he had communicated with the American authorities and had received documents establishing Kenny's American citizenship.

Big Raid by Sinn Féiners.

BELFAST, September 19.—With twenty automobiles captured from week-end pleasure-seekers, Sinn Féiners in mid-Tyne Saturday carried out one of the biggest raids for arms in the history of Ireland.

When the machines had been captured a gang of 100 masked men, all heavily armed and led by an officer, descended from the adjoining mountainside and entered the cars, the drivers of which, with revolvers at their heads, were compelled to drive the raiders around the country, visiting houses in search of arms.

Soldiers who had been in ambush since early morning surprised a body of Sinn Féiners at bombing practice in the hills today. One republican was killed, two were wounded and thirty-five captured.

DEMOCRATIC TEXT BOOK ARRIVES IN WASHINGTON

Praises Party Nominee and Wallops Senator Harding and Republican Congress.

The democratic text book, issued by the democratic national committee, reciting the achievements of the party and the promises of Gov. Cox, the party's nominee for President, has been received in Washington. It contains also a severe arraignment of the republicans and their presidential nominee.

In appearance the democratic text book is very like that issued by the republican national committee for the present campaign. But that and the fact that both of the campaign text books contain the democratic and republican platforms printed in parallel columns is as far as the likeness goes.

"Harding Nuggets," so called, strike the eye almost as the book opens. They are quotations from Harding speeches and editorials of the last few years, the reprinting of which is intended to embarrass the republican nominee. He is quoted as attacking in scathing terms Theodore Roosevelt and Hiram Johnson.

Biographies of both Gov. Cox and Franklin D. Roosevelt occupy prominent positions in the democratic text book, and their speeches accepting their respective nominations. The records of achievement by the democratic party and the republican party are also printed in parallel columns. The republican text book, while it mentions the league of nations covenant, does not publish the text of that document. It is given in full in the democratic text book. Winning the war is discussed for a hundred pages or more; also the federal reserve system, the Newberry case, the charges of excessive campaign expenditures by candidates for the republican presidential nomination. The democratic take credit for the ratification of the woman suffrage amendment by Tennessee, a democratic state, the thirty-sixth amendment, the thirty-sixth amendment, the "nothing Congress," and as such is ridiculed in the text book. A chapter is given to discussing what the democrats have done for labor.

S.W.V. DELEGATES RETURN

The delegates who represented the Gen. Nelson A. Miles Camp, No. 1, United Spanish War Veterans, at the twenty-second annual encampment, which was held last week in St. Louis, Mo., returned to the city yesterday with reports of the "biggest encampment they ever attended."

The Washington camp was represented by G. A. Rausch, past district commander; C. A. McCaffrey, senior vice commander of the department; James B. Carver, past commander of Miles Camp; Clairborn S. Close, commander of the camp, and Fred Zulch, senior vice commander of the camp. When the delegates arrived in St. Louis, according to Mr. Zulch, they were welcomed by Mayor Kiel. Parades, dinners, dances and other social attractions were given.
